EDITORIALS.

The state supreme court has decided that the St. Louis segregation election may proceed. Now let us see what the big Republican majority in that city will do in this crucial test of fairness toward the greatest element of its strength.

The fine address delivered by Judge Ralph E. Latschaw to the crowded community meeting at Lincoln high school last Sunday ought to inspire every Negro along the line of higher ideals in virtue, temperance and domestic economy. Principal Lee is leading a great work.

This is to be a great convention year for the colored people of Kansas City. The National Business League as well as the semi-centennial celebration of the Masonic Grand Lodge will bring into our midst the foremost men and women of our race from all parts of the country.

The fact that the Star and the Post are each supporting the so-called Non-partisan movement does not mean that those two journals are together by any means. It is an old, selfish hobby of the former and the latter is supporting it because its editor was for it before he fell out with the Star. The only thing it is likely to accomplish is the re-election of Jost and the perpetuation of the Democratic machine.

A valuable addition to the social and business life of this city is Mr. T. A. Dickson, special representative of the Standard Life Insurance Company, who was general manager before coming here of the Union Guaranty Insurance Company of Mississippi, with headquarters at Jackson. He is a high churchman, a musician of unusual ability and a thorough gentleman in every sense of the word. Dr. W. T. Vernon, in a letter of introduction, speaks of him in the highest terms, and we have found him during our short acquaintance to be a man of exceptional caliber and ability. We predict for him unqualified success in this city.

Hennessey, Ok.—Editor of the Sun: Who is the man that is born and reared in America with all of our free privileges and rights that can't vote or what is he disfranchised for? I find all other classes can vote and sit on a jury although they be immigrants, and but three to six months in this country, they are accorded all the rights and privileges of American citizens, yet the man who has lived here over 200 years, fought in the army to protect his country, in some states can't vote or sit in the jury box. Who is that man? T. M. HOLLAND.

The editor had as his house guests this week: Hou. L. H. Bradbury and Lawyer Crittenden C. Clark, both of St. Louis, who were attending the Negro Republican conference.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Many hikes to places of interest in and near Kansas City are planned for the boys during the early spring months. The first of these was on Washington's birthday, when the boys visited Searritt Point.

Rev. J. D. Isaacs, professor of theology in the theological department of Western University, addresses the Men's Meeting Sunday, February 27, at 3:30 p. m. Also Charles Stewart, the press correspondent, will speak. Hear them.

Mr. Vincel D. Harris has loaned his elegant piano, which has been in storage for the past year, to the Association. Still another piano and a music box are desired. Any person with a piano in storage, wishing to save the storage charges and at the same time render a service to the young men and boys of the community, is solicited to lend it to the Y. M. C. A.

Handball, the popular game of the business men connected with the K. C. Athletic Association and the Central Y. M. C. A., is now occupying the center of interest in our physical department. H. B. Smallfield, the champion handball player of the city, with his partner, gave an exhibition of this wonderful game to the noonday class on last Wednesday. It is said that the Paseo handball court, which has practically four solid walls, is the best in the city.

All branches of railroad service were represented at the Railroad Men's meeting on last Sunday, when nearly 100 men heard addresses by Judge Mayo, of Gary, Ind., Prof. G. N. Gisham and three representatives of the Pullman Car Co., J. B. Fox, A. Tilsner and Wm. Venn, assistant superintendent of the Kansas City district. The tenor of the talks was that a new type of railroad man had been evolved during the past few years and a different attitude is now being shown this high type of manhood, both by railroad companies and the public.

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That chickens that come home to roost have more sense than some men.

—That there is no house on earth big enough for two women to live in and each be boss.

—That two prominent ladies have hired attorneys to protect their character. Guess who.

—That Judge Latschaw delivered one of the most impressive addresses at Lincoln High last Sunday ever heard in our city.

—That there are a whole lot of people who think the vote was only given them to sell for $2. Well, they'd better wake up or Judge Latschaw will wake them up some day.

—That the hair pullingest, scrappiest, scratchingest fight witnessed in many a day took place a few days ago between two women over which should be allowed the right to purchase a well known buffet flat which was being offered for sale. Now who were they?

—That a Negro preacher was discussing the subject of faith and knowledge, and in presenting this to his congregation gave the following argument: "Now brethren, hear it Brother Johnson; in the same seats sits Sister Johnson, and between sits five little Johnnies. Sister Johnson knows them's her children; she knows it. Now that's knowledge. Brother Johnson he thinks dem's his children. Now dat's faith."

HELENA, MONT.

After three weeks of severe cold the sun is shining like spring. Sunday was quarterly meeting at the A. M. E. church and Rev. C. N. Douglass, the presiding elder, preached to two large and appreciative audiences. Mr. J. Harrison had a new tank and reservoir placed in the parsonage at his expense. Mr. Wm. Mason has been appointed assistant custodian at the Federal building at Helena. Mr. A. E. McGinnis received a letter from J. L. Johnson's singers, who were at the state fair last fall, saying they were having remarkable success in New York City at the Palace theater. Miss Emma Dorsey has entered high school. Word has been received from Miss C. V. Ford that she is having a fine time in Spokane, Wash., owing to the snow slide in the Cascade mountains. The stewardess gave a chattering supper February 22 at the residence of Mrs. Dorsey, 900 Eighth avenue. Miss O. Butler, formerly of this city, is now in Salt Lake City at Barrick Conservatory. The literary society met Friday night at St. James A. M. E. church. The ladies of the church gave a costume social Wednesday night. Mrs. Geo. Lee, Jr., won first prize, wearing the finest costume, Mrs. Mona Mathias second as the most comical dress and Miss Ruth Hooper was quite unique as a lawn tennis girl, also Ruth Blanks as Chas. Chapman and R. Merrill as a coachman. All was a grand success. The Baptist church gave a Lincoln social at the parsonage Monday night, which was a grand success. Mr. and Mrs. Williams of the Georgia Jubilee singers are visitors in the city, the guests of Mrs. Ada Salisbury on State street. Mrs. Etta Boies and sister, Mrs. Vene Anderson, are expected here from Detroit soon. The Masons are preparing for a grand entertainment to be given the first of March. Mrs. Charles Oliver and Mrs. Robert Houston have returned home from Kansas and Missouri after spending the winter there. Miss C. V. Ford left for Seattle after a six weeks' visit here. Mrs. Nora Walker will leave in a few days for her home in Seattle. Mrs. M. A. Greene will soon sail for Honolulu.

ST. JOSEPH, MISSOURI.

By SMITH CREWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gipson and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hayden and family went to Lawrence, Kas., last Thursday to bury their son and grandson, little Charlie Gipson. The chief and her daughters met the bereaved family at the depot with a beautiful wreath of flowers. The family has our deepest sympathy, as this is their first death in their family. May they all live to meet their little Charlie again where parting is no more. Mr. Earl Kiger is on the sick list. Mrs. Mary Harvey, who has been very sick, is up and out again. Mr. Manuel Creek is on the sick list. Mr. Grant Askins, who has been sick so long, is not much better at this writing. Mr. Silas Clark was in Chillicothe last Sunday to visit friends. Mr. Samuel Stanton died February 18 at a local hospital and was buried from the A. M. E. church, of which he was a member. The Masons turned out in a large body. He leaves a wife, one daughter, brother and sister to mourn his loss. Mr. Raymond Robinson is on the sick list. There will be quarterly meeting next Sunday at the A. M. E. church. Mr. Sherman Thal of Oregon spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Crews.

TROY, KANSAS.

Mrs. Effie Clark of Highland, Kas., has moved here with the new doctor that has come to this city. She is an estimable woman and we are glad to have her with us. The Ladies' Aid was entertained at the A. M. E. church Thursday evening by Miss Anna D. Taylor. Quite a number attended and partook of the dainty refreshments. Mrs. Mollie Brown visited in St. Joseph Thursday and Friday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Webster and family. Miss Mollie Wilkerson is staying in St. Joseph a couple of weeks working. Miss Nellie E. Schumacher and Mr. Charles Schumacher were in Elwood and Wathena, Kas., Sunday in the interest of the ladies' day program which will be held at the A. M. E. church next Sunday. Mr. Harrison Wilkinson visited from Thursday until Monday in Elwood, Kas., the guest of his sister, Mrs. M. A. McCurry. Mrs. Mary Schumacher is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. M. Webster of St. Joseph, this week. Mr. Will Wilkinsons was visiting in St. Joseph Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Isaac Turner visited in Elwood and Wathena Sunday. Miss Annie D. Taylor entertained the Ladies' Aid at the church last Thursday evening. Mr. Robert Sawyers of Wathena was transacting business in Troy this week. Miss Lizzie Lighte entertained a few friends Sunday afternoon at her residence. Quite a few of the younger set surprised Miss Nellie E. Schumacher last Friday evening, it being her birthday, and took the house by storm in cooking, making candy and popping corn for themselves as well as herself.

LAGRANGE, MISSOURI.

Mrs. Gertrude Scott is visiting in Keokuk. Rev. C. H. Hardy of Hannibal, Mo., is in the city a few days on business. James is the name of the son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams. Mother and son are doing nicely. A special sermon for boys and men at the A. M. E. church Sunday. Those on the sick list are reported better. The I. O. O. F. Jolly club will give a dance Friday night. Prof. Dorsey Taylor and orchestra will furnish the music. Mrs. Martha Hunter of Hannibal, Mo., is visiting her mother. Rev. E. D. Green will preach Sunday. A nice crowd attended the entertainment at the home of Ed Bailey Saturday night.

After "Poro" Humbugs

Mr. L. M. Singleton, field agent for the "Poro" College, St. Louis, Mo., spent ten days in Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kas., getting evidence against persons claiming to make "Poro" and selling unsealed goods without labels or revenue stamps as "Poro." He states that the people throughout the country are being beaten out of their money by such practice and that "Poro" is made only by Mrs. Pope-Turnbo-Malone, St. Louis, Mo. Persons who have been thus victimized will please notify Mrs. Pope-Turnbo-Malone, 3700 Pine street, St. Louis, Mo.
